

SouthEast|LinuxFest

LINUX IN THE GNU/SOUTH

June 13th, 2009 Clemson University Hendrix Student Center Clemson, South Carolina

The SouthEast LinuxFest is a community event for anyone who wants to learn more about Linux and Free & Open Source software. It is part educational conference, and part social gathering. Like Linux itself, it is shared with attendees of all skill levels to communicate tips, ideas, and to benefit all who use Linux/Free and Open Source Software. LinuxFest is the place to learn, to make new friends, to network with new business partners, and most importantly, to have fun!

Speaker Lineup:

Russell Bryant Lead Package Maintainer, Digium

Michael DeHaan Senior Software Engineer, Red Hat

Paul Frields Chairman of the Fedora Project Board, Fedora

Ryan "Icculus" Gordon Linux Game Ports (UT2004, Doom III, others)

Brian Leonard Technology Evangelist, Sun Microsystems Joe "Zonker" Brockmeier OpenSuSe Community Manager, OpenSuse

Chris DiBona Open Source Program Manager, Google

Ian Geiser Developer, The KDE Project

Pete Graner Kernel Team Leader, Canonical/Ubuntu

Wendy Seltzer Attorney, Electronic Frontier Foundation (EFF) Founder of Chilling Effects and OpenLaw Liason to ICANN

Mark Spencer CEO, Digium

Robby Workman Developer, Slackware Linux

FREE to attend. $50 supporter package with t-shirt available.

See our website below for the latest news, and to sign up to attend.

http://www.southeastlinuxfest.org